CANCER SEASON
2019

Mystically in Season for Aquarius

0-17 Degrees: A halfway mark has been reached in your 19-year cycle of solar development. Over the past year or two, you've been in a phase of moving out of self-development into sharing your harvests and beauty in a relational, vulnerable way. It's requiring you hold deep exchange or other-focus. Cooperation, compromise, and marriage of equals are being asked for from you. If conflict arises, it's a sign of needing to strengthen your harmonizing skills. Peacefulness is the gift of this cycle of growth in your life once you learn how to use your resonance to attract the correct resonance of other to you. Stay open minded, listen more, and relax into knowing that others are willing to share your burdens once partnership is found.

17.3-30 Degrees: You have likely learned a lot about relationships over the past couple of years, and development now takes you a step further into deeply sharing the resources of your life—past the surface of trust into the value of your material, body, secrets, and heart. Things to keep an eye on are withholding patterns, giving away of power, or holding power over others (a form of control). It's a time to dive into your psychology and the mysteries of where your deepest resources hold stuckness, trauma, and hiding. It's in uprooting and witnessing your own resources that are cultivated underground, and understanding/trusting the enormous value of them, that you can heal and gain healthy precision in your life around sharing, merging, and power patterns.

Balance. Share. Empower

Oracle Draw for Aquarius: Nourishment

A message to your highest self, that this is a time of much growth and development in your life, especially with your ruler in the roots of your life and your yearly solar/lunar rhythm aligning with connection and pollination. This is a reminder that what you feed yourself with—words, food, thoughts, dreams, judgements—are what are growing into your sense of security and wellness. It's important now to really focus on the positive, on only healthy material and spirit. What you put into you is what will feed the fruits of your life to come. Positive, positive, positive. Healthy, healthy, healthy. You've got this, but it may be a good month to uproot the source of bad habits that put a cloud over any part of your mentality and clarity. It's time to nurture your life in the most beautiful way possible.
