

MYSTICALLY
IN SEASON
FOR CAPRICORN

CANCER SEASON
2019

Mystically in Season for Capricorn

0-17 Degrees: Your life is shifting into a busy one where lots of maturity has been ripened in your life, but this has created the work of gathering the harvest, a.k.a. of getting the rhythm of your life together in order to feel whole, useful, skilled, and refined. You may sense a pressure point coming just around the corner where what you have put into systemized form is what you are going to be measured in the world by. It's an important time to really treat the everyday like a jewel to be perfected. Rituals, routines, processes, systems. The things that give your life rhythm and distilled purpose are the focuses of this phase of growth for you. More relaxed work is coming soon, but the pressure is on to make a masterpiece of your personal work.

17.3-30 Degrees: You have very recently reached a halfway mark in your current 19-year cycle of development. Personal development has peaked. You've matured things in you, in your work, in your skill and purpose. It's now time for the outer world to partake of your fruits. This can feel triggering. What we have to offer is sometimes not valued in the world or used in the world the way we would've hoped. Everyone has their own agenda and the phase you are entering is asking that you listen more, compromise, cooperate, and seek fair exchanges. Partnership and relationships are likely coming your way. These are testing you to work with the energies of harmonizing where we can either create conflict, cons, and competition OR we can create peace, elegance, and beguiling dances. Be fair to yourself, be fair to others, compromise doesn't mean you are the only one to compromise and it doesn't mean that other is the only one who needs to compromise. Give and take in equal proportion is the measure to seek.

Harvest. Balance. Relax.

June 21 – July 21

A sensitive and vulnerable season if there ever was one. Not only will the full moon be in your sign this month (July 16th), but it will also be conjunct your ruler, Saturn, whose also conjunct intense Pluto and the moon's karmic south node, AND opposed Venus. Eek. Let me break this down for you so you can be prepared with a plan (your fave thing, right?).

- A) A full moon in your sign is indicating that this is a month that your ego development is deepening into a place where it meets your soul and deals with insecurity in the depths of your life. This insecurity is just a trigger telling you it's time to nurture, nourish, and grow deeper in order to support your current reach in the world. Although it brings feelings of moodiness and vulnerability, it's a fertile time when you are preparing to mature with fruitfulness in the coming months.
- B) Saturn will be opposed by the sun on the 9th. While your ego's journey is in a place of vulnerable deepening, something about your soul's journey is asking that you be very engaged in the outer world with integrity, pressure, and authority. You will be stretched around the date through the lunar eclipse on the 16th in very tense ways. Sit in the mid-point of security and in any instance ask yourself which side of security currently needs the most attentions: private or outer world position.
- C) This is all going to highlight the fact that your ruler is sitting on the south node of the mood and near Pluto. This is a time of great karmic forces asking you to face things started about 9 years ago. Trauma or things that have always been frozen in you may need some deep investigation, uprooting, and facing.
- D) With the solar eclipse in your relationship sector on the 2nd, there may also be pressures on relationships that feel exhausting. Resistance, leading to exhaustion, leading to surrender is the path here. The place of surrender is the goal where cosmic gifts will step in to guide and direct you to transcend an old boundary or old baggage/circumstances that need to be moved past.

While all of this may sound horrendous, the universe is pushing and pulling at you in ways that will mold you into something more elegant. The process may feel like shit, but a hindsight look will mark this time as a moment that broke you into a new version of yourself that's stronger and wiser.

Watch July 14th-16th for the heart of this phase for you.

Oracle Draw for Capricorn: Soul Retrieval

This card is a sign that you have gotten disconnected from the inner you. You've let life and mind narrate what it is you think you want, need, desire. Take steps to get back into your body and the matter of your Self. Your heart, feelings, intuition, body, and soft whisperings. Nature is where you can learn how to reconnect to this. To the true wisdom of being a human alive in rhythms that are your own, not to be compared to your neighbor's. It will show you the cycles of life, of being in rhythm with your soul's mission, of being present to the weight of your true needs. Needs that align with journeys that require rain, snow, heat, but also beauty. Needs that accept the flow of life as one that is required for your personal path of growth in this lifetime. Reconnect to your wisdom, your body, through solitude and observation of nature.
