Mystically in Season for Leo

0-17 Degrees: You are in a phase of rebirth. With passion and impulse high, it's your year to really turn on the inner drive of creative spirit. Harness your spark and try any and all of the outrageous agendas pushing up and out of you. It's likely that there will be a lot of failure, a little bit of beginner's luck, but always a strong resilience to see you through.

Tap into the pliable and supple energy that you have right now. It's a rare thing to feel. Its desire on a scale that comes only a few times in our lives. Even though the things you initiate right now may not be what finds traction in more mature phases to come, this is a time when you are laying out the direction and passion of the next 18 years to come.

17.3-30 Degrees: You've been through the passion phase of beginnings. You've been impulsive, charged head first into this and that. Maybe found a little success, but likely by now you are slowing down to mold and adore a more specific trajectory. As you do this, things you've initiated may become unrecognizable, but in the most delicious of ways. Take your time. No rush. The slower the better in this phase as the senses need time to add each of their needs for form and function, to the thing in your life that you are savoring. Find a new voice because of what you are shaping. Deepen a confidence and sensuality in your life.

Assert. Mold. Own.

June 21 – July 21

This season your sign is going through a time of needing to find a guiding light, a philosophy to help you believe, and a pushing/pulling on your perspectives. Share your thoughts and experiences with those who are newly stepping into their own fresh beginnings. You've gained some battle wounds that have taught you valuable lessons, and those lessons can be passed on to others who are about to spark with new life. Do you know any Cancer sun's? You've been where they are. Give them a light to focus on without trying to help them skip the cycle they must go through. Find new vision for your own fresh efforts. See things in bigger and more optimistic ways by pushing yourself to move out of any comfort zones.

Watch July 4th-5th for the heart of this phase for you.

Oracle Draw for Leo: Gratitude

This word is the key for opening doors of opportunity in your life right now. You shine with brightness and clarity in the phase you are in so don't waste this with any regrets, negativity, or longing for more. Be grateful for what you have, even the things that have toughened your skins. Where gratitude flows, things have a way of growing and opening for you. Keep an open heart, a warm Leonine presence, and say the word grateful at least once a day.
