Mystically in Season for Pisces

0-17 Degrees: You are in the mist of some deep psychological work. Uprooting, facing demons, and understanding what it means to share and be intimate with your resources, body, and depths. This is a time when you may realize the root of some power struggles in your life, when you need to put your most daring face on as some of the toughest lessons about control, seduction, power, and resources come in this phase of development. Not easy, but when you get out of the darkness and depths this takes you to, you will have a totally new connection to your life-force. Things may seem to be crumbling around you, but only what was never solid. The next phase will bring soaring dreams and visions to a place of expansive growth. You just need to digest the darkest, murkiest spots in your life before that can have the freedom it needs to see up and out. Stick in there, be brave, and face what needs to be faced. Psychologists can be your best friend in helping you understand blocks right now.

17.3-30 Degrees: You have a new lease on life. Although you are in some darkness and may experience moments of darkest hours, you are also seeing the brightest guiding lights right now. Push your boundaries, believe in yourself, or something grand that keeps you looking toward the stars, and go where you've never dared before. The sky's the limit as long as you keep your feet grounded. Find your focused aim, your big picture, and go for it. You will be out of your comfort zone for sure, but this is what opens you to new opportunity, expanded perspective, and an elevated life.

Uproot. Look up. Aim.

Feel the power of your voice, the optimism of your heart, and the stirrings in your creative urges to touch and animalistically be one with nature and your own nature. Relax, luxuriate, and embrace being embodied this season. This will strengthen your confidence for the big outer world challenges you're navigating.

Watch June 22nd-24th for the heart of this phase for you.

Oracle Draw for Pisces: Sunshine

This card is asking that you relax into your beautiful value this season. You have weathered storms, seen into your depths, trudged up mud, and seen new hope and vision. It time to honor your work with a little reward. This card says that you need to understand that karmic work has been put in, and rewards or wins coming in this season are proof of that. You need to be gracious in receiving and appropriating in order to signal to the universe that you are accepting of expansive luck, attracting more of it. Open your heart, clear away some of your stormy views, put on your queen/king persona and know that you deserve some luck to shine down. This is also a time to relax your expectation. To lighten up and just play. Be as kind to yourself as you would be toward a dear friend. You do not need to be anything but you. You are exactly perfect as you are right now. Shine in that fact.
