Mystically in Season for Sagittarius

0-17 Degrees: You are in a phase of coming into your star potential this year, an enviable and coveted phase of growth that doesn't come around in this powerful of a way too often. What does your heart long for? Love, fame, leadership, kids, luxury, leisure? Maybe all of it on some level? You dream big and it takes you much longer than most signs to land in your potential, but when you do, you do it with such expansion that life elevates in ways hard to be dreamt. Maybe your dreams have been mild if other things in your chart are cautious. Whatever kind of Sagittarius you are, believe with an open heart and a warmth with all, that your presence is, or can, attract luck your way to the degree that you are able to love with command.

17.3-30 Degrees: Your star is rising, but you have made it to a phase of growth where all of your harvests are now ripe and ready to be gathered. A time of plenty, but also a time of a lot of hard work. Hold gratitude for the amount of work coming in. Know that the systemizing, purpose, and processes you put in place now are what will either lead to the outside world placing high value or low value upon your harvest in the soon to come future. Make your everyday rhythms a thing of beauty that cultivates and refines and deep purpose and skill in you.

Love. Create. Harvest.

June 21 – July 21

This season could put you doubly in the spotlight along with the phase of growth that you are in. Strike while the iron is hot as luck and love are yours to grab if you stay present and loving. Generosity, gratitude, warmth, creativity, shine, and presence are your secret weapons if you choose. Single? Get out and meet people this season. Romance is in the air for all of you archers, though. That's not all. If you are looking for a leadership position, leisure time, have urges to create just because your heart wants to expand, this is a golden time for you. Especially after the sun crosses the north node after the 9th and very potently when the moon crosses your ruler, Jupiter, on the 13th. Channel your inner child who believes in the potential of growth and life, who plays with abandon, who's confidence and cocky youth is sometimes a painful reminder of age. That youthful belief can be yours. Just open that heart to believing in the goodness of life.

Watch July 12th-14th for the heart of this phase for you.

Oracle Draw for Sagittarius: Sunshine

Of course this is the card I drew for you. I swear this is not made up. My process is to write all the things above this first and then pick the card. The universe agrees with me that you are in the position this season to claim your light, love, sweetness, beauty, and star. I just love it when I'm right ;) An added emphasis that you need to stay positive this season, to believe, to love, to keep your heart open and create when it tells you to, to be generous when it tells you to, and to celebrate when it tells you to. Your heart is in control for the next 30 days. Got that? If you keep it hidden you will lose out on the gifts of the season. Let it communicate to you that you deserve good fortune. You've already earned it. All you need to do is accept it when it comes with a big smile and a gracious ability to appropriate what smiles upon you. Imagine yourself to be royalty, a queen/king, a goddess/god— whatever you need in order to step into your heart's command.
